HEDSOR HOUSE WEDDINGS

Nestled in the Buckinghamshire countryside, perched high above the River Thames, Hedsor House is a stunningly beautiful Georgian country home exuding timeless allure.

Set in 100 acres of Grade II listed parkland, and with a glamorous history dating back to 1776, it frequently graces the pages of lifestyle magazines as one of the most desirable places to marry.

If you're looking for a breathtaking setting, complete exclusivity and an unforgettable experience, Hedsor House has it all. Grand and oh-so photogenic from the outside, light and airy inside. The refreshed heritage interiors beautifully blend historical charm with modern elegance - a place to celebrate life's most special moments, and setting the stage for a party without inhibitions.

A PRIVATE OASIS JUST FOR YOU.

From the moment you arrive at the gates of our sweeping drive, you'll notice the tranquillity. Abundant rhododendrons and bluebells bloom amidst the woodland walks. As you turn the corner you'll see the house itself rise into view - classic, elegant and utterly private.

The estate's sprawling lawns overlook rolling hills and the sparkling River Thames. Whether bathed in the golden hues of sunrise or kissed by the hazy sunset, these magnificent views serve as a backdrop to unforgettable moments.
